“Leading & Coaching Diverse Teams”

Coaching your team and helping them progress is the mark of a successful leader. While much attention has been given to team-building, there has been much less focus on what it means to be a good coach. The old rules of management and supervision simply don't work with today's complex and diverse (age, gender, race/ethnicity, etc.) workforce.

This one-day course will introduce participants to the concepts of coaching and how the effectual use of this skill set can promote organizational effectiveness and increase productivity in today's diverse workplace.

Workshop Content

This one-day training workshop provides team leaders the tools to become effective coaches of individual team members to ensure team goals are met. Through lecture, activities and case study reviews; participants will gain the knowledge, skills and behavior strategies that will equip them to engage their diverse teams more effectively.

Who Should Attend

Team leaders and supervisors who are looking for the tools and know-how to effectively coach diverse teams and engage in the organization's strategic plan of fostering a culture of inclusion and diversity.

Workshop Objectives

- Examine the five keys to coaching your team to success
- Understand the importance of interacting effectively with each member of your team.
